

The District of Columbia looks more like a peacetime capital this summer than in many years. . . . For the first time since the war, the house is now planning a long recess. . . . This reflects increased congressional confidence in the new White House set-up, also the fact that many a legislator yearns for home. . . . The dollar-a-year men and brass hats who planned to check out after Germany's defeat haven't started their exodus. Instead they've been joined by hundreds of business men who've moved in to get their reconversion headaches unsnarled. . . . Thousands of returning officers and enlisted men from Europe have added to the housing and feeding problem. Parking spaces along the Potomac are crowded on hot nights with G.I. Joes and G.I. Janes and government workers searching for a cool breeze. Washington is more peaceful, but still jammed.

Adding to the crush are the Truman boys who have descended on Washington. . . . They fall into three categories: (1) The Missouri boys, friends of Truman and Bob Hannegan looking for jobs, patronage, and juicy political plums. . . . (2) The Pauley boys from Southern California—friends of former Democratic Treasurer Ed Pauley who've rushed into town to climb on the gravy train. They're brash and crude for the most part, have little respect for the taxpayers' money, and already have their eyes on the gilded dome of the capitol. . . . Third group are the "Battery K" men. These are the World War I vets who saw service with Harry Truman in 1917 and 1918. Most are satisfied with a brief "hello" and a handshake from their hero. Others cling to the wrought iron gates of the White House, think that their comradeship with the new chief executive is a guarantee of a soft government job.

Truman Heyday

Truman's own aides in the White House are still impressed by their new surroundings. . . . Some feel that Truman's rise gives them a blank check to use his power for their own ends. . . . One youthful aid has been bragging about having Truman's political enemies shadowed, their wires tapped. . . . Truman, a sworn enemy of wire-tapping when in the senate, will probably clip their wings soon. . . . Most powerful man in the Truman entourage is chubby, cigar-smoking Brig. Gen. Harry Vaughan, one of the "Battery K" boys, who buzzes considerable advice into his chief's ear, but now finds it being accepted with less frequency. . . . The hangers-on are still having a field day around the White House.

Center of administration power has partly shifted from the White House to the second floor of the Mayflower hotel, where Bob Hannegan holds forth in Democratic headquarters. . . . Judge Welburn Mayock, the committee's new general counsel, uses the office to lobby for California oil interests. . . . George Killom, the new treasurer of the national committee, who has been using a meat-ax to collect money for the committee from business men may find himself chopped down soon. . . . One ardent Democratic supporter of many years' standing hearing about Killom's tactics, said, "He'll collect so much money we'll lose in '48. Everyone he taps for $5,000 will feel like contributing twice as much to the Republicans to boot the Pauley crowd out." Meanwhile little is happening to set the stage for Democratic victories in the congressional elections next year. . . . Hannegan is already in hot water with labor, particularly the CIO, which he has been studiously ignoring. Labor leaders, who poured out millions to help Roosevelt last year, claim they can't even get a glass of water from the Democrats when it comes to bucking oppressive legislation in congress, and are now making threats to move over to the GOP camp.

Republicans Harmonious

Farther up Connecticut avenue at Republican headquarters things are harmonious. . . . The Republicans are sitting back, are quietly laying the groundwork for a high-powered congressional race next November. . . . What they need most of all are some issues. . . . GOPsters, including Chairman Herbert Brownell, are confident they'll find plenty in a few months, are hoping that Truman stubs a few toes politically soon. . . . Republican Chairman Brownell has a million dollars to spend on the elections. . . .

Truman's cabinet changes thus far have been extremely popular. . . . Tall, scholarly new Labor Secretary Schwelmbach has made scores of friends for his department, has infused new life among its weary employees, has made an A-1 impression on congress. . . .

Ex-Congressman Clint Anderson has the hottest job in the new administration trying to straighten out the tangled food mess as secretary of agriculture. . . . Anderson is a great red-tape shearer, has already made big improvements, and is no pushover for lobbyists.

Additional Prowl Car Is Sought for Campbell Area

Enough people showed interest in the police question to produce a turnout of about a score of citizens Wednesday night for the Chamber of Commerce meeting. President Joe Gomez presided and heard considerable discussion pro and con, with the final result that it voted to request the board of supervisors and sheriff to add an additional prowler car which would double the county protection we now have.

This request will be made in the form of petitions from this and surrounding territory. These will be circulated within a short time and it is hoped to have them on file with the board by the time the annual budget is acted upon.

The only other alternative for additional police protection locally was the hiring of a man for the work or contracting with private individuals who are already servicing Saratoga and Los Altos similarly.

Lucius Buck To Marry New York Girl

An item in the Santa Fe New Mexican of July 16 announces the engagement of S/Sgt. Lucius E. Buck of that city to Miss Emily Elizabeth Gerow of Patterson, N. Y.

The article further states that Sergeant Buck taught at the Allison-James School and at the Menaul School in Albuquerque after his graduation from the University of California and before entering the army.

Miss Gerow, the daughter of Mrs. Daniel E. Gerow Sr. of Locust Glen, Patterson, is a graduate of Oberlin College in Ohio, and has taught in Albuquerque, and Vassalboro, Me.

The wedding will take place early in the fall.

S/Sgt. Buck is the son of the late C. E. and Mrs. Augusta Buck of Campbell and brother of Mrs. Ellas B. Hillard (Helen Buck), and a graduate of Campbell schools.

Teachers Taught To Instruct New Drivers

A unique five-day Teachers' Institute, at the University of California in Berkeley, is training instructors who in turn will teach high school boys and girls to drive efficiently and safely, the University has announced.

Besides courses for teachers of young people approaching legal age for drivers' licenses, the Institute offers a course on driver selection for motor vehicle fleet operators.

Prof. Amos E. Neyhart, administrative head of the Institute for Public Safety at Pennsylvania State College, is chief instructor.

Joint sponsors of the Institute are the State Department of Motor Vehicles, the Division of Highways of the State Department of Public Works, the State Department of Education, the California State Automobile Association, and the University of California.

Plans Started for New Store Building Here

Karl Bohnett of the State Highway Patrol recently stated his intentions to erect a 50 by 100 foot, $12,000 store building on a lot 100 by 200 feet at the corner of Campbell avenue and Winchester road. He is seeking priorities to start work on the construction as soon as possible.

Donnell Jaekle, San Jose architect, is drawing up the plans for a single-floor grocery store to contain a vegetable market and butcher shop with a large mezzanine in the rear of the building for office space. The lot is large enough to provide a parking area.

Lt. Kelso Is at Randolph Field

Randolph Field, Texas—Ready for transition training in B-29 superfortresses, 2nd Lt. Richard J. Kelso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob C. Kelso, Route 2, Campbell, Calif., has reported as a student at Randolph Field.

At this AAF Training Command installation, B-29 commanders, pilots and flight engineers master operation of the giant super-bombers preparatory to combat assignment.

Lieutenant Kelso's wife resides at 132 Chichester Place.

High School Board Meets

The board of trustees of the Campbell Union High School district was reorganized at its recent meeting, with the two new members who were elected in May taking their places on the board.

Ray Bishop was continued as president; and J. V. Gomes was named as clerk. The other new member is G. K. Schradler, and the remaining two former members are John D. Blaine and W. N. Lloyd.

Cpl. Walker Is Traffic Clerk In Casablanca

ATC Air Base, Casablanca—Cpl. Carol S. Walker, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mansel M. Walker of Campbell, has been assigned to Cazes Air Base as a flight traffic clerk on transport planes of Air Transport Command's North African division.

Cpl. Walker was assigned to ATC to assist in the Air Force's huge "Green Project"—the movement by air to the United States of 40,000 veterans of the European war each month. As a flight clerk he will accompany plane loads of passengers over parts of the routes to look after the passenger lists and help the homeward-bound men accustom themselves to travel by air.

In the army since March, 1943, Cpl. Walker spent 17 months with the Air Force in Torretta, Italy, before being transferred to the ATC in North Africa.

His wife, Mrs. Velma V. Walker, and two year old son Robert, live at Route 4, Visalia, Calif.

Campbell Blood Donors

Campbell supplied nineteen donors to the Red Cross blood bank Tuesday, with Mrs. Evelyn Newton making her fifteenth contribution.

In the group were Frances Chapman, Jack Murdock, Patricia Martin, Marie Carmen, Catherine Foster, Mabel Osborn, Thelma Whitmore, Norma Latham, Rose Vitale, Mary Vintro, C. R. Kaffer, Leona Coffee, Hattie Gardner, Charlotte Rice, Evelyn Newton, Ruth Klassen, Leona Griffith, Marie Fammatre.

Word has come to the Press office, not direct, that Rev. J. H. Bennett and Mrs. Helen Garner were married and that he had accepted a pastorate in Loomis, California.

Campbell High P.-T. A. Study Group Meets

Members of Campbell Union High School P.-T. A. and other interested ladies met at the First Methodist church Tuesday, July 17, to learn about frozen foods and their proper preparation.

Plans were made to go on with the course under the direction of Mrs. Winifred Jecker of the Agricultural Extension department.

The next meeting is planned for Aug. 21. It will be a cheese-making session. Although the milk supply may be less than the consumers' demand at the present time, due to wartime conditions, such will not be the case always, and information received at this class will be gratefully utilized later on, especially by rural residents with cows and an abundance of milk.

For further information contact Mrs. Henry Jensen, study group chairman, whose telephone number is Campbell 3376.

Contract Let for School Building

The board of trustees of the Campbell Union Grammar School has let the contract for a new six-classroom and lavatory building at a bid of $66,500.

C. F. Parker of San Francisco was the successful bidder and work will begin next week, and the building will be ready about Christmas time.

Youth Center Has Busy Week

At a meeting of the Campbell Youth Center program committee, headed by Larry Lewis Monday night, the delivery of a second pool table was made. The table was donated by Mrs. Alice Johnson, 536 Arleta avenue, Burbank.

Tuesday night members of "The Roost" met for a roller skating party. Wednesday, the weekly get-together was held at "The Roost." Today the officers of the club are on a yachting trip. Friday night is ping-pong and pool night and Saturday night a sports dance will be held at The Roost.

The club's membership now numbers 63, according to director Jimmy Glynn.

Next Wednesday, August 1, The Roost is arranging a "Mystic Night" with Harry Shaw, the famous San Jose magician as the main performer. The members hope to secure the high school little theatre for this occasion.

Several acts by members are being arranged and others may be secured. Larry Lewis, president, will give a trumpet solo, Ray Flagg and Walter Trask, a black face act, and Le Dean Garrison.

Later there will be a yachting party for members with the highest attendance records.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Waggle of Harrison avenue, are proudly announcing the birth of a five pound girl, on July 21, at O'Connor sanitarium. She has been named Karen, and is also welcomed by her brother Tommy Lee, who celebrated his first birthday on July 20.

District Attorney Is Guest Speaker at Kiwanis Meeting

Leonard Avilla, district attorney for Santa Clara county, was guest speaker at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday explaining the Civil Duties of the District Attorney's office. Martin Walsh was chairman for this occasion.

The speaker interestingly discussed the civil work of the D. A.'s office and its connection with the various districts of the county of which there are over 200, as well as his advisory capacity for the board of supervisors. This work, as was plainly brought out, is little known to the general public but does occupy a great deal of the time of the D. A.'s office.

Visitors were Supervisor Joe McKinnon, Frank Coombs and Commander Frank R. Anderson who gave the members a short but very interesting account of his experiences in the Pacific.

Next week Lt. Col. Byron Hall will be the speaker with Jack Murdock, chairman.

Baptist Survey Is Completed

The religious survey of Campbell, conducted by the Church Extension department of the Northern California Baptist Convention was completed early this week. The First Methodist church and the Assemblies of God church, cooperated in the work, Rev. Mack McCray, Sr., directing the survey. The Methodist pastor, Rev. Lawrence J. Osborne worked every day, and Rev. H. L. Johnson of the Assemblies of God church worked all that it was possible due to other circumstances.

The town in general was very cordial and much real information was obtained for all the churches in this survey. The following results were tabulated:

	Mem.	Prof
Methodist	90	30
Baptist	65	32
Pentecost	57	19
Congregational	55	22
Christian	35	4
Lutheran	10	1
Episcopalian	8	3
Christian Science	7	0
Presbyterian	6	3
Adventist	4	0
Jewish	3	0
Mormon	3	0
No Preference		35

The census of the entire town was taken with 523 families contacted. However, 190 families were found not to be at home—many had sleepers. It will be announced at a later date regarding the organization of a Baptist church. This announcement will come from the Executive Secretary Rev. Reuben A. Olson in San Francisco.

I wish to thank the citizens of Campbell for their fine cooperation in this survey, also Rev. Osborne and Rev. Johnson.

Rev. Mack McCray, Sr.

The Star Circle, auxiliary of the Eastern Star will hold a rummage sale in the banquet room of the I.O.O.F. hall on August 9, 10 and 11. In addition to clothing there will be pieces of furniture, electric toaster, dishes and other articles. Anyone having donations for the sale will contact Mrs. J. C. Agostinho, telephone Campbell 3334.

UPHOLD AMERICAN TRADITIONS AT HOME

The Hon. John R. McCarl, for 15 years Comptroller General of the United States, says: "Send strong men to Congress. A weak Congress imperils the nation. A strong Congress, sustained by an informed, interested and alert citizenry, protects freedom and is vital to national safety."

WAR AND THE WEATHER

Eta—the secret weather forecasting station that was the nerve center of the entire British meteorological system—was indispensable to victory in Europe. On the strength of its 48-hour weather forecast, Eisenhower postponed D-Day from June 5 to June 6; and the planning of every bombing field in Germany was dependent on its predictions. From the air or the main road Eta looked like a small hill, and its entrance like the dark opening of a cave. Three shacks standing in an open field housed the most important secret inventions of British meteorologists. Balloons and airplanes were used to obtain information about conditions of the upper air. Reports on weather conditions in the northern hemisphere poured in to the center all day and all night. From this information Eta was able to send out 8,000 forecasts a day.

LEARNING BY EXPERIENCE

"The year ahead," says the Farm Journal and Farmer's Wife, "will afford striking material for thoughtful farmers to consider. Wartime restrictions have reached into every day of every one's life. Farmers have taken rationing, price ceilings and floors, and all else in their stride. Agreeing that some controls are to be expected in wartime, farmers have seen that none has worked too well.

"... Agricultural price policies, for instance, have been affected by the political demands that cost of living be held down. Farmers have seen such policies defeat their own ends by creating scarcities where plenty was possible, and by setting up black market prices instead of fair prices. Watching the ponderous efforts of government to meet the rapidly changing situations of these months ahead, farmers will have a chance to estimate how much government they want in their affairs when the war has passed."

"Sound social advancements require, always, time and tolerance."—President Truman.

ROCKET ATTACK BLOCKED

A German plan to bomb the United States with long-range rockets was defeated by the RAF raid on Peenemunde in August 1943. It was the keen perception and skill of a British girl in the Women's Auxiliary Air Force that caused the vital attack to be made. In May 1943, a small black smudge on a photograph of a section of Peenemunde attracted her attention. It was blurred and could easily have been overlooked by a less experienced photographer. This proved to be a picture of the V-1, and after close study of pictures of the area, the RAF mounted its big attack. The Germans now admit that the raid killed 600 of their experts and set their work back six months. These six months were the margin of safety between V-E Day and November when the Germans hoped to launch their attack against the United States.

WHY THE CALL FOR CANNERY WORKERS

A call is being sounded throughout Northern and Central California to enlist for service in this area workers to pack the huge fruit and vegetable crops.

Never before has the appeal been so urgent. And never before has the call meant more to the men who are giving their all fighting the stubborn Japanese enemy in the far reaches of the Pacific. More men than ever are overseas—millions of them—and being far removed from the fresh food areas, they need canned food to live and to fight.

This year canned food is a military "must". The armed forces require 75 per cent of the State's canned fruits and 60 per cent of its canned vegetables—more than one billion cans—a demand even greater than the record pack required in 1944.

On the home front, moreover, food shortages continue to grow, so that more than ever this packing of food—canned fruits and vegetables—signals a military and a domestic crisis.

But fruits and vegetables don't wait for workers. When they ripen the peak comes with a rush and workers must be ready in the canneries or the crop is lost.

That's why the call sounds throughout the state to housewives and students over 16 years of age. The plea is "sign up" today at the U.S. Employment Office or at your nearest cannery. The food you pack—food for fighters—means real help in the war effort. Won't you give a helping hand?

GI BILL REVISED

The revisions made in the GI Bill by the House, and which the Senate is expected to approve, should make the educational and loan provisions of that act much more helpful to American war veterans.

Ex-servicemen will now have four years, instead of two, after discharge from service in which to commence study courses, and monthly educational subsistence has been raised from $50 to $60 for vets without dependents and from $75 to $85 for those with dependents.

As to lending regulations, the House cut some red tape which had made the obtaining of government guaranteed loans a protracted process by removing the provision requiring lenders to submit all loan applications to the Veterans' Administration in Washington for final approval.

Rules governing property appraisals were also adjusted so as to make them more practical under present real estate conditions.

These changes should enable banks and other lending agencies to make loans to a greater number of veterans. Up to the present time financial institutions, although making every effort to assist loan-seeking vets, have been so restricted by the regulations of the Veterans' Administration that the actual number of loans made thus far has been comparatively small.

Although most changes reported thus far in Washington dispatches apply principally to home loans, it is hoped that a fuller report will show that much-needed adjustments on the rules governing business loans were also included.

ARMY AIR CORPS

The United States Army Air Corps celebrates its 38th birthday anniversary on August 1. The vast armadas that today roam the skies of the world carrying the insigna of Uncle Sam's army are a far cry from the single frail "flying machine" that inaugurated actual military aviation in 1909—two years after the Army Division of Aeronautics had been established.

Today the Army Air Corps has in excess of 50,000 planes. We have built many thousands more for our Allies as well as for the other branches of the armed forces.

IT DIDN'T take Myrna Loy long to decide what she'd do as a free-lance star after she left Metro. When the Kate Smith program returns to the air early in September, it will be broadcast Fridays at 8:30 p. m., EWT, on CBS, instead of Sundays, and will be on the air 25 minutes instead of a full hour. And there'll be more songs by Kate.

Cornel Wilde, expert fencer, who plays the swashbuckling Aladdin in Columbia's "A Thousand and One Nights," will be built up as the successor to the late Douglas Fairbanks in roles of that type. He's the first to get that build-up since Fairbanks died.

Remember all those models who were taken to Hollywood, with much fanfare, for "Cover Girl"? Dusty Anderson, the only one of the 15 to be given a studio contract, gets her first lead playing opposite Warner Baxter in "The Paper Doll Murders."

John Reilly, the engineer of the air show, "It Pays to Be Ignorant," works nights, and sleeps late mornings. At least, he did until his three-year-old daughter heard little Johnny, the call boy on the Ginny Simms show. Now she gets up at the crack of dawn and goes around the house imitating Johnny's clarion call advertising the sponsor's cigarettes at the top of her lungs.

Marie McDonald will play her first piano solo before a huge audience — all the people who go to see "Getting Gertie's Garter." Producer Edward Small heard that Marie had been studying piano with Ray Sinatra, cousin of Frank, who's one of Hollywood's best known pianists and arrangers. Small didn't know she'd learned little more than the scales, so he had her written in for a piano solo.

The new Fred Waring show, heard Mondays through Fridays over NBC, is a novelty in more ways than merely changing the usual network type of morning programs. Waring has made his program a showcase for returning veterans who want to make show business their postwar careers. The veterans apply for an NBC "Welcome Home Audition," provided by the network especially for servicemen; Waring scans the results and picks the most promising.

When Roy Acuff and the Smoky Mountain Boys and Girls of "Grand Ole Opry" fame were being flown in a C-47 to a huge war bond rally in Tennessee, members of the plane's crew regretted that they'd miss the show, as they had to return. So Roy and his band got out their instruments, and while flying 200 miles an hour at 5,000 feet, gave their complete performance for the crew.

Kay Kyser wrote President Truman asking for a list of the chief executive's tunes, and was informed that they're "Over There," "Pack Up Your Troubles," the "Toreador Song" from "Carmen," and "Song without Words." Kay will present them in new arrangements on his air show.

ODDS AND ENDS—Ellery Queen show guest armchair detectives who have only a mild interest in murder-mystery fiction are usually the most successful in guessing the correct solution. . . . Barbara Jo Allen, the "Vera Vague" of radio fame, has a featured role in Columbia's "Snafu." . . . Micky Kuhn, 11, who plays Rhett Butler's son in "Gone With the Wind," has been signed to play Dick Tracy Jr. in RKO's series of films based on the popular comic strip. . . . Monogram's "Dillinger" is breaking records, and inspiring other studios to go in for similar films.

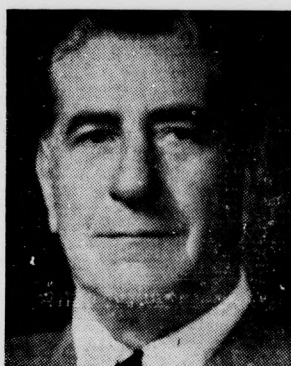

Inez Matthews and Le Verne Hutcherson star in the matinee of "Carmen Jones" at the Civic Auditorium, July 29

Muriel Smith to Sing Title Role In "Carmen Jones"

The stupendous Billy Rose production of "Carmen Jones" makes its long-awaited appearance in San Jose Sunday, July 29, playing a matinee performance at 2:45 and an evening performance at 8:15. The much-lauded Muriel Smith will sing the title role in the evening and Inez Matthews will sing it in the afternoon. The indescribable color of the costumes and staging, the stirring, magnificent singing, the amazing talent and infectious gaiety of the entire production make it what critics have unanimously agreed "superb . . . enchantingly beautiful."

"TEN LITTLE INDIANS" COMING AUG. 5

The Agatha Christie mystery, "Ten Little Indians," which is still running in London and New York, will play one performance in San Jose on Sunday evening, Aug. 5. "Pure fun and plot virtuosity" with the most clever backstage effects, including the pouring rains, howling winds, motor and fog horns, cries, etc., with the setting on a lonely, windswept island, make "Ten Little Indians" some of the most exciting entertainment on the current stage. Such actors as Robert Warwick, Toni Gilman, Alexander D'Arcy, Philip Tonge, Lillian Foster, Hunter Gardner and others, the same cast as delighted Chicago for six months, do a corking job. The title is taken from the nursery rhyme, "Ten Little Indians . . . And then there were none." In the stage play, eight are liquidated, but two remain to make a happy ending. Tickets for "Carmen Jones" and "Ten Little Indians" are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

More California Soldiers Headed For Home

Miami, Fla., California can get out the red plush carpet. More of her native fighting sons are headed home after being flown by Air Transport Command from far-flung battle fronts.

They are among the 50,000 "chosen" ATC fliers from overseas each month, the majority of whom land at ATC's Miami Army Air Field. Spending less than a day here, they are taken by rail to Camp Blanding, Fla. Their next step toward home is a reception center for separation from the service or furloughs prior to reassignment.

Among the latest California returnees through ATC's Caribbean Division hub is Pfc. Thurman R. Harris, 25, an infantryman whose address is Route 1, Campbell. Harris spent 39 months in Europe, terminating in Germany.

Expenditures of County Higher

Santa Clara county's expenditures for general county government for 1943-44 averaged $24.09 for each person in the county, compared with average expenditure of $22.69 per person for 1942-43 and $14.63 per person for 1934-35, ten years earlier, California Taxpayers' association said today, making public its study of "Ten Years of County Spending."

Expenditures of the county for 1943-44 were as fol-

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL

The Distinguished Service Medal is awarded to persons who, while serving in any capacity with the Army of the United States, distinguish themselves by exceptionally meritorious services to the Government in duty of great responsibility, and to all enlisted men of the Army to whom the certificate of merit had been granted under the conditions of previously existing law. It was instituted in 1918.

On the medal the coat of arms of the United States in bronze is surrounded by a circle of dark blue enamel bearing the inscription "For Distinguished Service." On the reverse is a scroll for the name of the recipient. It is suspended by a bar from a watered-silk ribbon, composed of a band of scarlet, a stripe of dark blue, a band of white, a stripe of dark blue, and a band of scarlet.

Major Willis M. Green of the U. S. Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Casey road, is now wearer of the Presidential Distinguished Unit Citation for having served with the 416th Fighter Squadron in Italy. Major Green entered the service in September, 1941. He has more than sufficient points for discharge but was declared "essential" some time ago, so does not have any idea when he may be home.

Home Appliances
are Gradually
Coming Back

Have you been nursing your old appliances? Or have you been doing without a needed mechanical work-saver, patiently waiting and hoping...? You won't have to wait too long now. Home appliances are gradually coming back. If you desperately need some certain home appliance now or you plan to buy some new appliance next year, it would be wise to see your local appliance dealer. Drop in from time to time and see what he has. Tell him your wants and perhaps he can put you on his future list. And in the meantime, keep buying War Bonds and hold on to them.
